

Daisy Awards

Any member of The Junior League of Cleveland, Inc. may recommend another member for a Daisy Award. Daisy Awards honor League volunteers who have given their time and service above and beyond the call of duty. The following are the guidelines for recommendation:

- ◆ The recipient shall be a member of The JLC in good standing.
- ◆ Board of Director members of The JLC do not qualify during their time of service on the Board.
- ◆ The individual being recommended must rise above the expectations of her placement by taking on other responsibilities in addition to those of her placement.
- ◆ The member must emulate the core values of The JLC, which are:
 - Deliver superior customer service.
 - Treat others with uncompromising truth.
 - Honor commitments.
 - Lavish trust on your associates.
 - Mentor unselfishly.
 - Promote multiculturalism.
 - Encourage personal risks for the organization's sake.
 - Be receptive to new ideas, regardless of their origin.
 - Give credit where it's due.
 - Do not engage in or tolerate dishonest behavior.
 - Place the interest of the organization above individual interests.
